

Wheat Ridge Sustainable Neighborhoods Program

Resource Guide Planning Document

A resource guide is a collection of information about a specific sustainability topic that increases the audience's awareness and encourages behavior change. A resource guide may be neighborhood-specific ("Local Shopping Guide") or may be applicable to a larger audience ("TerraCycle Free and Low-Cost Recycling Programs").

- At the beginning of the guide, clearly explain the value of the resource guide to the audience.
- Cite sources if applicable – link to webpages or list contact information

Each resource guide earns a neighborhood 5 credits. A neighborhood may complete up to 4 resource guides within each certification year. Completed resource guides will be uploaded to the neighborhood's webpage and credits will be added to the neighborhood's credit widget. No form submission is necessary.

Resource Guide Name:

Please select the goal area(s) covered in this guide. Select all that apply.

Air

Energy

Land

Water

People

Resource Guide Topic – Please describe the specific topic(s) that will be covered in this guide.

Resource Guide Audience – Please describe the group(s) of readers you will connect with by creating this guide.

What is the format of your resource guide? (PowerPoint slides, written document, map, etc.)

Resource Guide Details – Please give a short overview of what the resource guide will cover and if this guide relates to a larger neighborhood effort (i.e. workshop or implementation goal). What information do you want to share with your audience? What information does your audience want and need? Why is this information important?

Impacts – Please explain how the resource guide will educate your audience and how the guide will encourage behavior change

What outreach strategies will you use? Consider multiple ways to distribute the guide. How does your specific audience prefer to receive information?

Assistance Required – Please describe any assistance you would like from the City.

Who is the primary contact for this guide? Please list their name, phone number and email address.

Other Notes/Comments: